GRIZZLIES INK
TWO MORE
FOOTBALL PLAYERS

MISSOULA--

Two more prep football players have signed national letters of intent to play football at the University of Montana, announced UM head grid coach Larry Donovan.

The pair are Tony Fudge from Great Falls, Mont., and Joe Klucewich (pronounced Cloose-Wich) from Alpine, Calif.

TONY FUDGE. Fudge is a 6-2½, 195-pound defensive back from C.M. Russell High School in Great Falls. He was a first team all-conference and all-state pick at defensive back in 1979. He is also a standout in American Legion baseball, playing outfield for the Great Falls Chargers.

JOE KLUCEWICH. He is a 6-0, 180-pounder with 4.7 speed in the 40. A running back at Granite Hills High School in El Cajon, Calif., Klucewich gained 980 yards rushing in 1979, and 950 the previous season. He was a first team all-conference pick in 1979, second team All-San Diego that season, and second team pick of the Los Angeles Times' all-star squad. He was also his prep team's MVP in 1979. He lettered twice in football, basketball and track.

The two additions to the Grizzly football program make the total number of 1980 recruits 24 thus far.
